Recreation Rundown:

Gray called the meeting to order at 6:30pm, seconded by Velevis, all were in favor. The meeting was held at the Recreation facility and recorded for the public.

Members reviewed and approved of the minutes from September meeting

- Trick or Treat 10/31
- Haunted Walk – Had over 400 participants, new food vendor for future events. Trails need work. (Discussed laying down wood chips along the trails)
- Soccer season went well with zero complaints. 3-5th needs to be figured out for future.
- Field Hockey placed 3rd in our pink tournament. Renee did a great job and she will meet with Andy to discuss a house league in Dec/Jan.
- Open Gym had 30 kids per Jim
- Pickle ball/Tennis Courts are still in progress. Andy met the coordinator and will draw up program plans over the winter with skill level.
- Open Gym begins going well with 20+ participants.
- QuickBooks is now active and Andy will work to get Stripe connected and more familiar with program.
- Men's Basketball is at capacity and should consider small house league.
- Kids' Basketball has 110 kids total and mixed with grade levels.
- Calls from Santa – Dec 8 & 9 Officer Gagnon & Jillian's uncle Ken will be the Santas)
- Seniors luncheon has 3 luncheons scheduled so far.
- Bingo will be 11/19 and the first one. 6 were pre-registered. Hoping for a big turnout.

Group Discussion

We had a parent (Tiffany Fabiano) speak about her position as Asst. Basketball coach. She was unhappy with the changes that were made to her position and son's on the team.

- Budget
- Next meeting to be determined. May not need a December meeting.

Meeting End Time Julie motioned to end at 8:30pm, Andy seconded.
